

Lima, Cuzco, Machu Picchu, Arequipa, Lake Titicaca and Nazca Lines

Colca Canyon

Recently, following UNESCO recommendations, Peruvian authorities have placed restrictions on the visitation of Machu Picchu, the lost Incan ruins. Currently, no more than 2,500 people daily will be allowed to visit the ruins. While these new restrictions are great for the preservation of the ruins, they may cause some difficulties in your ability to visit them, so we recommend booking with plenty of notice.

This trip can be customized to fit your individual travel dates and any specific requests you may have. Your travel consultant will prepare a customized itinerary for you. We offer a choice of 3, 4, 5-star and deluxe hotels. The Deluxe option is with the Orient Express hotels: the Sanctuary Lodge in Machu Picchu, Monasterio in Cuzco, Casitas del Colca in Colca Canyon and the Park Plaza in Lima. The Deluxe option also includes the new Titilaka hotel near Lake Titicaca. You may also choose to upgrade to the luxury Hiram Bingham train from Cuzco to Machu Picchu, and take the Andean Explorer train from Cuzco to Puno (operates only certain days).

This tour includes airfare allowance from Miami (US), on non-holiday dates. You do not need to fly via Miami; Yampu will fly you the most direct way to your city of destination. Depending on your travel dates and proximity of travel, we will quote you the most economical surcharge from your city or country of origin.

Morning transfer to the train station. Train takes us through the Sacred Valley of the Incas up to the town of Aguas Calientes. From here, we will board a bus to the mountain citadel of Machu Picchu. We will then have a guided tour of the ruins. Machu Picchu, the Lost City of the Incas, was a flourishing ceremonial and agricultural site, probably the gateway to the jungle marshes of the Inca empire. The central buildings were erected with the polished stone works of the Cuzco Imperial style, though the site was probably occupied well before the Incas started their expansion. It was associated with the earth cult revolving around the coca leaf, which was a privilege of the Inca royal family and priests. You will have time to enjoy a light lunch or snack and return to your hotel at your leisure. In the evening, we will enjoy a wonderful dinner at the hotel or in the village of Aguas Calientes.

As we wander these fascinating islands, we will have several opportunities to interact with the friendly locals with an opportunity to purchase their handicrafts, ride in their boats, and see into their daily lives.

After the visit, we will continue our scenic ride on the lake to the island of Taquile. This island is known for its pre-Inca and Inca ruins, as well as its Inca terraces. The people of Taquile are popular for their high quality textiles, arguably the best in Peru. The knitting on the island of Taquile is reserved exclusively for the males, while the women make the yarn and weave. After our visit to Taquile, we will return to Puno and transfer to our hotel. Lunch (included) is served on the lake.

We will drive across Ica's desert in a 4x4 buggy vehicle and will make many stops along the way for pictures. The desert of Ica is the most beautiful in our country and offers stunning landscapes, not only of sand dunes but also of the Huacachina lagoon, from above. There will be many points where you will have the opportunity to experience the exhilaration of one of the most popular sports in Ica: sandboarding. Our driver will take us to the summit of some dunes, and from the very top you will be able to slide down the dune. Before you start to sand surf, our guide/instructor will teach you specific techniques to ensure a safe ride. There are actually plenty of spots to sandboard around Huacachina Oasis, with a wide variety of dunes suitable for the beginners, as well as for professional sandboarders. Keep in mind that on this tour you will not have to walk up the dunes to go for a second or a third ride; our driver will do all the lifting for you. The whole tour will take about 2 hours, so at the end clients are dropped off at the Huacachina Oasis.

Andean Explorer Train from Cuzco to Puno (Monday, Wednesday and Saturday only):

Fantastic train ride that takes a gentle climb to higher and cooler altitudes. The first half of the journey is dominated by the magnificent Andean mountains which tower over the deep valleys of the meandering Huatanay River. It then reaches the gentler, rolling Andean Plains, where vicuña and alpaca can be seen. The glass-walled observation car provides the perfect opportunity to view the beautiful scenery. The journey is broken by a scenic stop at La Raya, which is also the highest point on the route. Three-course lunch included. Restaurant and bar service is available at an additional cost. Train leaves Cuzco at 8 am and arrives at Puno at 6:00 pm.
