Itinerary

Day 1

Upon arrival in Managua, transfer to your hotel in Granada.

Day 2

Excursion to Granada, the third-oldest city in the Western Hemisphere. Granada was founded in 1524 by Spanish captain Francisco Hernandez de Cordoba. Although often overwhelmed by pirates, destroyed during civil wars and set on fire by the American filibuster William Walker in 1856, it remains one of the most beautiful cities in Nicaragua. You can take a carriage ride throughout Granada to appreciate its beautiful architecture. We will end our trip on a boat ride on the beautiful islands of Lake Nicaragua. Lunch included. Overnight in Granada.

Day 3

Early departure and transfer to the port of San Jorge. Ferry and excursion to Ometepe Island, then take an unforgettable journey to one of the most beautiful places of Nicaragua: Ometepe Island, the world's highest lake island. The excursion starts by heading toward the southern part of the country, getting to San Jorge's port where we will take a ferry that will take us to Ometepe. Here you can enjoy one of the most spectacular views in all of Nicaragua. We will visit places like the pre-Columbian Museum, the Green Puddles lagoon, the great view of Volcano Conception and the green volcano Madera. Lunch will be taken in Santo Domingo beach. Back to the port to take the ferry and transfer to San Juan del Sur.

Day 4

Day at leisure in San Juan del Sur. You may visit the small fishing town or just relax on the beach. Afternoon, transfer to Managua and then to your hotel.

Day 5

Transfer to the airport to take the flight back home, or choose from optional add-ons in Nicaragua, extension to Costa Rica or other Central American countries.
