- Meals included:

DAY 2 | LIMA

Breakfast at the hotel

In the morning, explore Lima's old town for a half day, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, packed with fascinating historic buildings. The route begins at the traditional Pueblo Libre district, where you visit the Larco Museum, located in a beautifully restored viceregal mansion built on a pre-Columbian pyramid from the seventh century. The museum boasts a complete pre-Hispanic collection of gold and silver objects, as well as pieces of erotic art. Then visit the Casa Aliaga, a colonial mansion granted by chief conquistador Francisco Pizarro to one of his captains, Jeronimo de Aliaga. This is the only house from that time, still belonging to the same family. Continue with a scenic tour through the colonial downtown. See the Main Square, where you can appreciate the grandiose architecture of the Spanish Empire. Admire Lima's Cathedral, built during the 16th century. Finish the trip returning to your hotel.

In the afternoon, enjoy a guided tour of this charming city, which was the capital of the Inca Empire. The tour starts with a visit to Santo Domingo Convent, a large Renaissance-baroque complex, which was built over the Inca Coricancha temple. It was one of the most important temples dedicated to worshipping of the sun, and its foundations are still prominent at the base of the convent. Ancient chronicles say the temple was covered in gold leaf and filled with golden representations of nature. Then, visit the Cathedral, the most imposing monument of the Main Square. Head to the hills above Cusco to visit the remains of the fortress of Sacsayhuaman, whose imposing ramparts offer a stunning panoramic view of Cusco, and the ruins of the temple and amphitheatre of Qenqo, where it is believed the Incas practised agricultural rituals. Admire Qenqo and then finally visit Puka Pukara ('Red fortress' in Quechua) an Inca military complex located on a prominent hill. Its dwellings squares, bathrooms, aqueducts, walls, and towers can still be appreciated. Afterwards, return to your hotel.

DAY 4 | CUSCO - URUBAMBA

Breakfast at the hotel

During the morning, you are picked up from your hotel in Cusco to visit the town of Chinchero, a traditional Cusco urban centre located at an elevated point with a beautiful view of the valley. The inhabitants of this area preserve the artisan traditions and the inherited knowledge of the Incas and display them in their clothes and customs. In Chinchero there are also archaeological remains and a beautiful seventeenth-century church, one of the first Catholic buildings in Peru. Then, you are transferred from Ollantaytambo to the Living Museum of Yucaj, a centre Andean traditions interpretations, where demonstrations of the elaboration of textile work, adobe, pottery and silverware are carried out in the same way in which they used to in antiquity; an original recreation of Inca traditions. Also, residents of the museum include llamas, sheep and alpacas, and they can be fed! Upon arriving in Ollantaytambo visit its town, inhabited uninterruptedly since Inca times, and climb the iconic fortress, built next to a mountain. Later, have lunch in Ollantaytambo and live a superior Andean gastronomy experience in a restaurant, where the true spirit of the Sacred Valley is transmitted in a cosy atmosphere. At the end of this activity, you are transferred back to your hotel. On Sundays, also visit the local market.

Lunch at Wayra Ranch. Rich soil, ideal weather and millenary wisdom have combined to make the Sacred Valley arguably the most fertile in the world. You will probably become a believer as you indulge in its bounty. Delight yourself with a surprising gastronomic feast led by the prominent Chef, Pedro Miguel Schiaffino and Nacho Solis. The Peruvian Paso horse, renowned for the smoothest gait in the world. Stunning equestrian demonstrations, to the rhythm of marinera music will render the environment favorable for tasting the quality of their cuisine.

welcome drink, a gourmet lunch and an excellent selection of wines. Upon your arrival to Aguas Calientes, you will take a bus to Machu Picchu, a masterpiece of engineering and architecture which is believed to have been used as a sanctuary and leisure residence for Inca Pachacútec (1438-1471). Machu Picchu, which means Old Mountain, is a World Cultural Heritage listed by UNESCO and one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. You may optionally get to know the last section of the Inca Trail that ends at the Intipunku (also known as the Gateway of the Sun), the hidden road to the Inca Bridge or you simply enjoy the majestic landscape. Next, you may rest at the Sanctuary Lodge enjoying a tea and then board the train back to Cusco, dancing to the beat of local music and enjoying the sunset from the scenic wagon.

Private transfer from the Poroy train station to your selected hotel in the city of Cusco (11 km). 20 minutes approximately. A representative will accompany you during the ride.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE ENTRANCE TO PERU

The foreign person travelling to Peru must ensure that the validity of their passport is not less than 6 months, to enter the national territory.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE NEW ENTRANCE REGULATIONS TO MACHU PICCHU

The current restrictions on visits to Machu Picchu allow a maximum stay of 4 hours in the citadel accompanied by a guide during the first entry. If the visitor tours an alternate route (Mountain Machu Picchu or Huayna Picchu) the passenger will have 3 hours for this purpose, additional to the 4 hours in the citadel. If the passenger wishes to enter the citadel again during the afternoon shift or the next day, he must acquire previously an additional ticket to enter in the new shift. There is no ticket sale in the archaeological zone.

It is essential to provide updated information (full name, date of birth, nationality, passport number) of every passenger travelling to Peru, which must match the current passport that will be used for the trip. This information is particularly essential for visits to places such as the Inca Trail or the Historic Sanctuary of Machu Picchu (including Huayna Picchu or Machu Picchu Mountain), where local authorities demand the presentation of updated and original documentation upon entry.

RECOMMENDATIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR LUGGAGE TRANSFER ABOARD THE TRAIN TO MACHU PICCHU

- Carry the same ID card submitted to the agency, as train tickets and entrance ticket to Machu Picchu will be issued with the same information.
- In all train services to Machu Picchu the passenger may only carry hand luggage (backpack, purse or briefcase), with a maximum weight of 5kg / 11lb. You will find your luggage at your chosen hotel.

- Size allowance: 62 linear inches, 157cm (height + length + width)

	Weight	Size (length + width + height)
1 bag or backpack	5kg/11lb	62 inches/157cm

- Make sure you ask your embassy if a VISA is needed to enter Peru (or any other country included in your itinerary). Yampu Tours takes no responsibility if a guest does not have all the documentation needed to enter the country.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Comfortable and light clothes are the most convenient choice for traveling on Peru's coast, while warmer clothes are best for stays in the highlands. Passengers must not wear sleeveless T-shirts, shorts, miniskirts or very tight clothes when visiting temples, religious places or official buildings. Sunblock lotion, sun glasses, a hat or cap and a mosquito repellent can be also very helpful during the trip.

Please have in mind that check-in hour in most hotels starts at 13:00 hrs. Early-arriving guests will be subject to room availability, while waiting in the hotel lobby.

We recommend all our guests to fill their reusable bottles before leaving the selected hotels.

International and domestic flights are not included and must be purchased during time of booking.

Bookings can be made any time in 2020 with a return date by Dec 15th of the same year. Blackout dates apply. Must book a minimum of 30 days in advance before planned departure. Please contact Yampu Tour Consultant and Co-Founder, Monica Irauzqui for more information.
